Keith R.A. DeCandido

THE GRANDMASTER AWARD

The highest honor the IAMTW can bestow is the Grandmaster Award, which recognizes a writer for his or her extensive and exceptional work in the tie-in field. This year's honoree is KEITH R.A. DeCANDIDO.

He has written more than thirty novels, most of them original tie-ins or novelizations.

His work includes many Star Trek novels, as well as original books in the CSI: NY and Supernatural tie-in series, to name a few.

Max Allan Collins, IAMTW president, attended the San Diego Comics Con, as did several other IAMTW members who appeared on panels.

Collins said, "I was thrilled to have our third annual awards given a prominent time slot at the San Diego Con. A number of nominees and winners were present for the presentation. The Scribes honor the very talented authors who bring some of the most famous characters from motion pictures and television into the world of novels, and frequently onto the bestseller lists. These writers, highly prized by fans, receive few reviews and little acclaim, and the Scribe Awards are designed as a step toward properly honoring them."

A Scribe Award for best game-related novels will be presented during an awards ceremony at the Gen Con Game Fair in Indianapolis August 13th.

The IAMTW is dedicated to enhancing the professional and public image of tie-in writers...to working with the media to review tie-in novels and publicize their authors . . .to educating people about what tie-in writers do . . . and to provide a forum for tie-in writers to share information, support one another, and discuss issues relating to the field.
